Compliance Rule Advisory Process

Once a client has selected the Compliance Rule Advisory Service, our compliance professionals consult with each client to code and implement their existing rules into Charles River IMS:

1. Rule Library Review:

Review and write rules for investment mandates and regulatory requirements

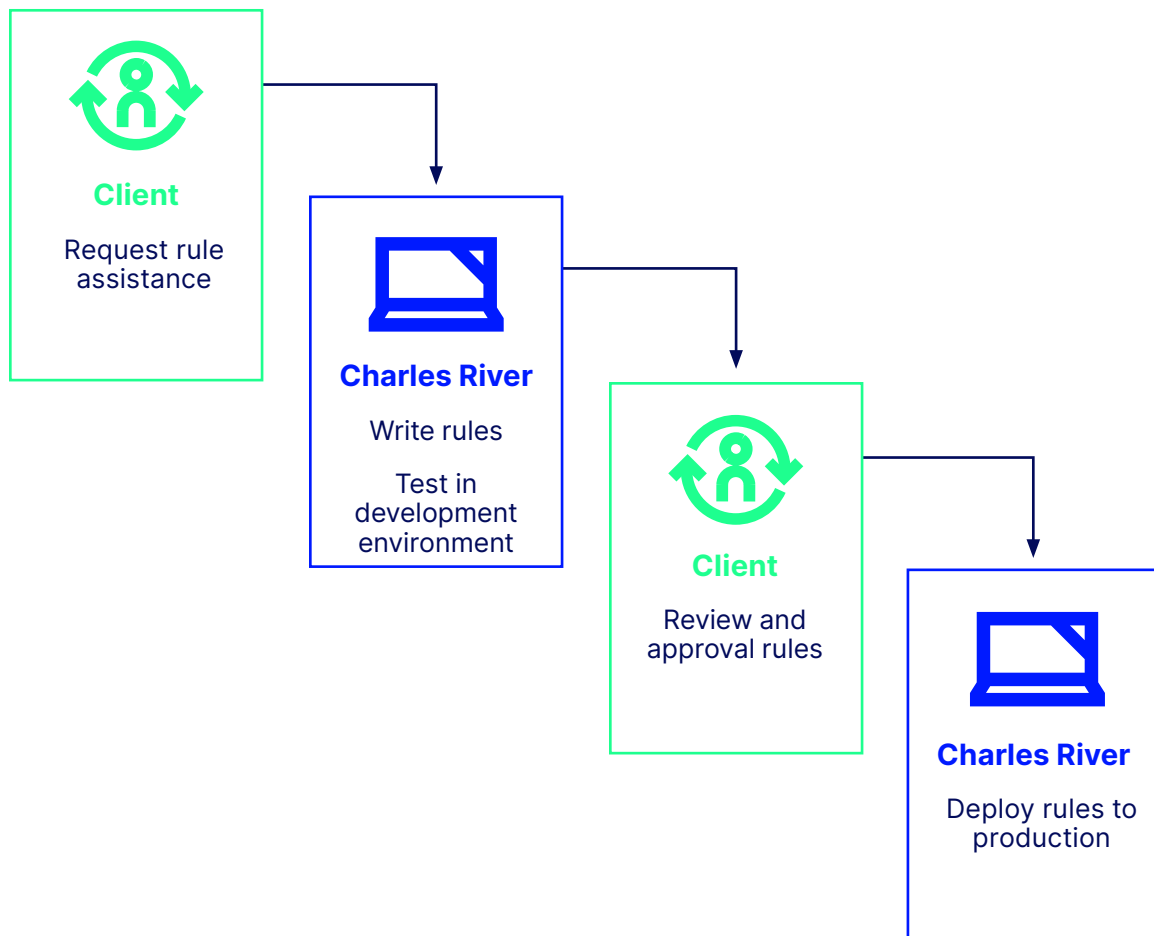

2. Test:

Rule testing and validation initially and after Charles River IMS upgrades where requested

3. Document:

Any changes to a client's rule library are submitted to the client for review and documented upon approval.

Our compliance professionals provide ongoing advisory support, including best practice assessments, and recommendations for data sourcing and managing data exceptions.
