

Charles River Portfolio Management and Risk Analytics

Agile portfolio management at scale

Charles River helps portfolio managers act quickly and confidently by clearly seeing their positions, risk and performance. Our agile portfolio management system drives efficiency and scale by combining modern investment workflows and fit-for-purpose solutions in real-time. Our technology provides confidence and control over the process that transforms decisions into results.

Turn investment decisions into returns

Data fragmentation and latency impede managing risk across multi-asset portfolios. Aggregate key data sets and make informed decisions. Identify risk, evaluate whether those risks are adequately compensated, and leverage advanced analytics to uncover hidden exposures. With insight, confidently construct portfolios.
